St. Joseph and Benton Harbor, Mich.

A popular resort port of the Goodrich steamers is the Twin Cities of Michigan, St. Joseph and Benton Harbor. On the St. Joseph River between the two towns is the Central Dock where steamers land and where transfer is made to city cars, interurbans and bus lines to nearby resorts. These two cities are the center of the resort section of lower Michigan because of their natural advantages and the accommodations and amusements available.

Bathers, Silver Beach

The House of David, the Home of the Israelites, a religious cult, situated on the car line in East Benton Harbor, is one of the most interesting resorts in this territory. The extensive grounds are all set to fruits, vegetables and flowers, with a large recreation park attached, in which you will find bowling alleys, dance hall, airdrome, zoo, horticultural exhibits and other amusement features. The Sunday afternoon concert by the lady Israelite band is one of the most pleasing entertainments. Street cars run direct from our docks to the park.

Higman Park, with its beautiful summer homes owned by people from every state in the South and West, is one of the most pleasant resorts in this territory and is situated on Lake Michigan shore among the high wooded hills. From the bluff, which is very high at this point, beautiful views can be had of the lake and St. Joseph and Benton Harbor. A dancing pavilion right on the beach is a very popular place, where you can dance in the cool lake breezes.

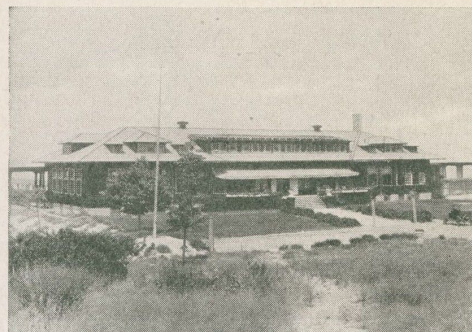

A Fruit Orchard, Benton Harbor

tion and comfort of the summer visitor and resorter. The clear, sandy beach makes bathing one of the greatest sports to be enjoyed here each day.

Paw Paw Lake Resort is not only the largest but best known summer resort in Michigan, deriving its name from a pleasing little body of inland water several miles in width and length, with the entire shore surrounded with summer cottages, hotels and boarding houses, all for the accommoda-

Boating is one of the many amusements and moonlight boat rides are delightful. Dancing and other entertainment at the different pavilions are also attractions for the pleasure seekers. Crowds of people visit here the whole summer, and the week ends are extremely busy, Saturdays and Sundays being special gala days. Canoeing on the Paw Paw River or a trip on launches making regular trips is one of the finest recreations and should not be missed. The scenery along the river banks far surpasses any other trip of this kind.

Club House, Edgewater Beach

Direct connections can be made by interurban and busses for Paw Paw Lake, Watervliet, Coloma, St. Joseph River resorts, Indian Lake, Sister Lakes, Berrien Springs, Niles and South Bend; and by bus to South Haven, Hartford, Kalamazoo, Stevensville, Bridgman, Baroda, Sawyer, Lakeside, Union Pier, New Buffalo, Grand Beach, Forest Beach and Michigan City. Very close connections are made with all Goodrich steamers.

Hotel Vincent

THE VINCENT is Benton Harbor's new eight-story, fireproof hotel, just completed and first opened for guests June 1st. Its location is ideal for the convenience of patrons, as the automobile route through the city is directly past the hotel; city cars pass the hotel, and the Union Railroad Station is less than three blocks distant. Central Docks of the Goodrich Steamship Line are easy of access by city cars and automobile, both dock and hotel being located on Main Street. The Vincent has 150 guest rooms with bath; coffee shop and grill; private dining room; billiard room and bowling alleys. All public rooms are connected with the ventilating system, by which fresh, cool air is constantly supplied. The cuisine is unexcelled, and the Vincent makes a special effort to care for the pleasure and comfort of its patrons. Reached by Goodrich boats direct Central Dock, Benton Harbor, Michigan. Write for rates to The Hotel Vincent Company, Benton Harbor, Michigan.
